QUAIL LODGE RESORT OFFERS VIRUTAL TOUR OF GOLF COURSE
- Helicopter Fly Over of Golf Course Gives Golfers an Overview of the Course

December 2, 2008 - CARMEL, California – Quail Lodge Resort and Golf Club announces the unveiling of a helicopter flyer-over tour of the golf course, making to easy to experience each hole before setting foot on the greens.

The Heli Golf Guide™, developed by Blue Coconut Media, Inc, uses the latest technologies to provide a spectacular and unique visual experience of the championship course based on the PGA-style hole-by-hole video. Using low-flying aerial footage combined with ground level footage, the narration for each hole acts as a virtual caddy for the viewer and explains the best way to play each hole. Heli Golf Guide™ is the only way that a user can get the true feel of a golf course, showcasing all the features, twists and turns of every hole, without actually setting foot on the greens.

“It’s state-of-the-art”, says Sarah Cruse, General Manager of the Quail Lodge Resort and Golf Club, “as it not only offers the opportunity to visualize your attack on our golf course before you visit our property but also provides you an opportunity to reflect on the magical memories you had at Quail Lodge.”
